

Margaret Nydell

Visiting Associate Professor
Georgetown University

Dr. Margaret Nydell has been teaching Arabic at Georgetown University since 1995. She received her Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics in 1970. She is currently the Director of Graduate Studies in the Arabic Department. She served as Acting Chair from 1995 until 1998. She has taught beginning and intermediate level Modern Standard Arabic, Formal Spoken Arabic, Arabic Dialectology, and Egyptian Arabic. She served as Director of the Summer Arabic Program in Tangier, Morocco, from 1996 to 1999. Her teaching interests include Arabic dialects, sociolinguistic issues, and the place of the language in Arab society.

Books

- Margaret Nydell. Understanding Arabs, fourth edition. Yarmouth Maine: Intercultural Press, 2006.
- Margaret Nydell. From Modern Standard Arabic to \(6 regional Arabic\) Dialects. Arlington, VA: DLS Press, 1993.
- Margaret Nydell. Arabic Dialect Identification Course. Arlington, VA: DLS Press, 1993.
- Margaret Nydell. Saudi Arabic Basic Course. Washington, D.C.: FSI, 1975.

Phone: 202-687-5650

Fax: 202-687-2408

Email: nydellm@georgetown.edu