

Kenneth P. Riggs, Jr., CFA, CRE, MAI

Kenneth Riggs has served as chief executive officer of Real Estate Research Corporation (RERC) since 1991. He is active in bringing sophisticated and solid research to the real estate industry. He serves as the editor-in-chief to the RERC Real Estate Report, a widely quoted real estate quarterly, and produced Emerging Trends in Real Estate, the RERC Industry Outlook, and Expectations & Market Realities in Real Estate, some of the nation's leading annual forecast reports.

In addition, Mr. Riggs has served as a featured speaker for the National Association of Realtors, Pension Real Estate Association, Association of Foreign Real Estate Investors, Institute of Real Estate Management, The Counselors of Real Estate, and many other respected national organizations. He has had numerous articles published and has been quoted in many publications, including Mortgage Banking, Real Estate Forum, Real Estate Issues, Real Estate Portfolio, among others. Mr. Riggs earned his MBA from the University of Chicago, concentrating on finance/statistics, and his BBA in real estate and finance from Kent State University.