

James S. Lee, CRE
Senior Principal and co-founder
Kensington Realty Advisors, Inc.

James S. Lee, CRE is Senior Principal and co-founder of Kensington Realty Advisors, Inc., an SEC registered investment advisor providing real estate investment management, advisory and financial services to major pension funds, financial institutions, off-shore investors and high net worth individuals.

Mr. Lee oversees much of the firm's acquisition, asset management, disposition, financing, and research activities. His career began in 1982 with The Prudential Realty Group and has included acquisition, asset management, disposition and financing experience in wide-ranging geographic and property type contexts.

Mr. Lee received his BA degree in Architecture as well as an MBA in Finance from the University of Minnesota. He is an active member of the Urban Land Institute, Pension Real Estate Association, Mortgage Bankers Association and the Counselors of Real Estate.

April 2016