

Inga Schwarz

Avison Young

Inga Schwarz is heading Avison Young's German Research Department. With more than fifteen years experience in the commercial real estate sector, she is responsible for research and analytics, reporting as much as location and market analysis. Prior to joining Avison Young, Inga Schwarz was Head of Research Germany at Cushman& Wakefield LLP for ten years. She started her professional career at BNP Paribas Real Estate Germany where she was part of the firm's Consult team for more than five years.

Inga holds a diploma in Geography of the University of Hamburg. Her studies included a year abroad at Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario.

Inga is Co-Head of the Real Estate Market Research competence group at the Society of Property Researchers Germany (Gesellschaft für immobilienwirtschaftliche Forschung e.V.). She is also member of the European Research Group of the International Council of Shopping Centers. Moreover, she is member of the German Association of Geographers (Deutscher Verband für Angewandte Geographie - DVAG).