Professional Expertise

Raymond Trevisan is an Executive Managing Director who focuses on providing landlords and tenants with advisory and brokerage services. With more than 25 years of leasing transaction, development and strategic real estate planning experience, Mr. Trevisan has an excellent track record of providing unique real estate solutions for his clients. In addition, his extensive relationships and stellar reputation for customer service, enable him to meet and exceed the needs and expectations of those he conducts business with.

Mr. Trevisan, while a Principal of Normandy Real Estate Partners, was responsible for directing the firm's leasing activities across Normandy's 15 million-square-foot portfolio in the New York Tri-State, Greater Boston, Metro DC and California markets. Prior to his tenure at Normandy, Mr. Trevisan was a First Vice President at CB Richard Ellis, where he focused on tenant representation.
