Brandi McDonald serves commercial clients as a President for Limestone Commercial Real Estate completing 25.6 million square feet of brokerage transactions, representing a total value exceeding $2.7 billion. For 25 years she has demonstrated that servicing at her highest enables her clients to perform at their best.

Prior to launching Limestone Commercial, Brandi completed six years as executive managing director in Newmark Grubb Knight Frank's Houston office, where as a specialist in global corporate services, she empowered global corporations to convert facilities to business enablers and unlock capital to fuel their business.

She joined Newmark following a corporate services role at Transwestern as a managing director and senior vice president. Credited with elevating Transwestern's national platform, she served on its board of directors, national tenant advisory services steering committee, and managed the Houston tenant advisory services division.

Prior to joining Transwestern, Brandi served as a principal of the Trammell Crow Company, where she was a founding member of the corporate advisory services platform of the firm's headquarters and launched Trammell Crow Company's corporate advisory services division in the Houston office.
