Experience

Tommy Crozier, MAI, rejoins CBRE as Executive Vice President where he leads the National Hotel Specialty Practice. Prior to joining CBRE, he was a Senior Director within the Valuation & Advisory Hospitality & Gaming group at Cushman & Wakefield. Tommy was a Vice President in CBRE's VAS division and was one of the original members of our Hospitality & Gaming specialty practice. He also worked with CBRE Hotels in the capital markets group as an investment sales broker. Tommy began his appraisal career with Keystone Consulting Group in Raleigh, NC in 2000, where he has since specialized in hotel valuations. He has authored over a thousand hotel appraisals during his career, ranging from smaller, limited service properties in rural markets to trophy assets in major urban markets. Tommy has more than 20 years of specialized hotel experience, including appraisals, consulting, feasibility studies, litigation assignments, and tax appeals.

Tommy's valuation and consulting experience spans a wide range of commercial properties, including undeveloped land, hotels/motels, industrial facilities, manufacturing facilities, multifamily properties, office buildings, residential subdivisions, self storage facilities, shopping centers, special purpose facilities and warehouse facilities.
